

Glendale K-9s in the Park is one of Glendale's most popular and FREE community events. It's a family-oriented, dog-friendly, and fun-filled day with non-stop entertainment and activities for adults and kids of all ages. Sponsored by the Glendale Police Department, the Glendale Police Foundation and the City of Glendale

Community Services and

Parks. The event features:

- Live Police Department K-9 demos.
- A pet adoption fair.
- Framed photos with your favorite K-9.
- Low-cost pet vaccinations and microchipping.
- Pet costume contest.
- Find out how fast your dog really runs!
- For kids: rock-climbing wall, bounce houses, face painting, & balloon animals.
- Great raffle prizes.
- Two convenient food and beverage stands.
- New K-9 merchandise—mugs, hats, t-shirts & more.

Officer Sholtis and Idol.

SHOWCASE YOUR BUSINESS

Officer Feeley and Jager.

This is a great and affordable opportunity to showcase your organization to thousands of attendees! Advertise your business, sell merchandise, and distribute literature. The foot traffic is great. (Literature must be approved by event coordinators.) We provide:

- Two chairs
- 10' X 10' space
- Table.

Dress up your space any way you'd like. Use signage to show people to your table. Questions? Contact nmichael@glendaleca.gov.

SPONSOR GLENDALE K-9s IN THE PARK
