Can you believe that it has been almost nine years since we started the Wilderness Workday program at Deukmejian Wilderness Park?

Can you believe that our volunteers have worked countless hours to plant hundreds of trees, remove thousands of invasive plants, and pour millions of gallons of water on the new trees (our math might be a little off)?

Can you believe that the #1 Song in the U.S. on February 16, 1967 was: I'm a Believer by The Monkees?

Well, You Better Believe It, because this is all true! Join us for our February Workday as we continue our quest to remove invasive plants, water, weed, and mulch around the trees.

We have tasks for all ages and abilities. This is a great event for families, individuals, groups, clubs, and students needing Community Service hours.
