Friday Night Lecture:

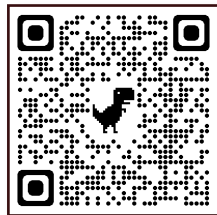

Get the Dirt on Dirt

FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 2024
6:30 PM – 8:30 PM

Stone Barn Nature Center
Deukmejian Wilderness Park
3429 Markridge Road, Glendale, CA 91214

Topsoil is one of our most valuable natural resources. Without soil, civilization couldn't exist. This class will cover the importance of and history of soils, how soils are formed, the different types of soil, the common characteristics of soil and how to manage them for different uses. Dennis Gaudenti, Senior Park Services Manager, will be our speaker.
